THE DAILY MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.

THE DAILY AVALANCHE.

Queen Victoria is growing very corpulent.

Seventeen million brick were made in Louisville last year.

It is said that Charles Francis Adams writes the articles on American politics in the London Star.

The poet who won the French Academy prize for an ode on the death of Lincoln, is going to send $600 to Mrs. Lincoln.

The Burlingame (Kansas) Chronicle declares for Horace Greeley as the Republican nominee for President.

Wendell Phillips was recently snow bound for forty hours in Connecticut, living on crackers and cheese. He wasn't tamed in the least.

If any woman in England has three children at a birth, the Queen makes her a present of three guineas. This is royal liberality.

The New York Sun states that two hundred clerks were discharged from one drapery house in Broadway, New York, on the 14th instant.

One of the Virginia conventionists, who wears a white cheuar, is compared by an irreverent correspondent to a tar baby in a cream pot.

Dickens has refused two thousand dollars to read in Hartford, Connecticut. The Post suggests that he be offered three thousand.

Colonel John Bowles, of the first Kansas colored regiment, was lately married at Madison, Georgia, to Miss Anna Hill, eldest daughter of Honorable Joshua Hill.

A dispatch of over six thousand words was received from San Francisco at Washington, on Friday evening, urging Congress to ratify the pending treaty with the Sandwich Islands.

A locomotive exploded its boiler, in the lower depot, at Reading, Pennsylvania, on the 23d, killing Albert Kline, engineer, and John Schmakle, fireman.

Justice Davis, of the United States Supreme Court, and author of the decision in the Milligan case, is the last one mentioned for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency.

There is in England a wide-spread and increasing feeling favorable to the amelioration of the condition of the Irish as the most effective means of suppressing Fenianism.

A son of Senator Bonham, of Missouri, aged twenty-two, attempted suicide last week, with morphine, and at last accounts was in a dying condition. The cause was a quarrel with his betrothed.

Fourteen out of two hundred girls employed by a firm of dry goods dealers in Boston were recently taken with the small pox, all in one day. It is supposed the contagion was contained in some imported goods.

The Mobile Tribune thus admonishes Judge Busteed: "Stand firm, then, Richard Busteed, and we shall anoint you with the oil of praise. Play chameleon, and we'll baptize you in a hogshead of sulphuric acid."

The New York Staats Zeitung has purchased Tryon row, fronting on Center and Chatham streets, of Ben. Wood, for $220,000, and will begin the erection of a fine building on the premises in the spring.

Henry S. Fitch, formerly of Chicago, ex-Quartermaster, and a United States District Attorney in Georgia, has assumed editorial control of the Savannah Republican, while Mr. Hayes recovers from the effects of the assault made upon him.

Mr. Savage, Consul General of the United States at Havana, has received a confidential telegram from the American Consul at Santiago de Cuba, in consequence of which he has sent a dispatch to Secretary Seward, advising him to defer the purchase of St. Thomas.

The Springfield (Massachusetts) Republican, in alluding to the death of Governor Andrew, says: "We seem to have no one left in New England to do his work, to fill his place. There is a flavor of provincialism about all the rest of our public men."

The marriage between Colonel Parker, of General Grant's staff, and the beautiful Miss Sackett, took place Tuesday, in Washington, at the church of the Epiphany. The ceremony was delayed, it will be remembered, by the illness of Colonel Parker.

Mary Harris, the young woman who shot Burroughs, her former lover, in Washington, and was afterward acquitted on the ground of insanity, is in the hospital for the insane, at Washington. At periods her madness takes a very violent form. On one occasion she broke everything destructible in her room, and more than once has attempted suicide.

In New York, last week, a starving girl caused the arrest of her employer for refusing to pay her for making woolen pantaloons at sixteen cents a pair, while he, being a "middle man," received sixty cents for the work, and his wife kicked her out of doors because she demanded what was her just due.

There is a universal language, or, at least, the foundation of one found in the fact that one and the same telegraphic alphabet is used in Great Britain, France, Belgium, Holland, the German States, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Malta, Switzerland, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Russia, Persia, Greece, Turkey, African and India; also for the Mediterranean, Persian Gulf, and the Atlantic cables. This alphabet, the New York Commercial Advertiser says, was originated by the Germans.

A loyal letter writer who has been visiting Springfield, mentions the following incident in connection with the monumental tomb built for the late Lincoln by his patriotic townsmen: "The massive door of this unoccupied mausoleum left open, swine have made a lodgment within its sacred walls. We noticed with disgust that an obscene hog, of the female persuasion, had made her bed in its very interior, and given birth to a litter of pigs. This is scandalous!"

Bishop Wilmer, of Louisiana, delivered a masterly discourse upon the Pan-Anglican Council, before an immense audience. Rev. Dr. J. W. Beckwith read the address by the Bishop of the Council, sent by the Archbishop of Canterbury to the clergy and laity in communion with the Anglican Branch of the Catholic Episcopal Church. Bishop Wilmer expressed the hope of a final union of all other denominations in the faith and doctrine of the Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, as delivered to the saints in its primeval ages, and as taught in the Church of England. That union was no more impossible than the union of the old and new world by electricity.

This is the history of the pecunious family of Cooke, of which Jay is the great and shining light: There were six children in the family, two of whom died; the rest live, and are married and affluent. Pitt Cooke, the eldest, has partial charge of the New York house of Jay, Cooke & Co.; Henry D. Cooke, the youngest, has entire control of one in Washington, and Jay himself operates in Philadelphia. Sarah E. Cooke, the only daughter, is married to a wealthy speculator, William G. Moorhead, who has right royally to the City of Brotherly Love. Eleutherus Cooke, the father of this happy family, died about three years ago, at the green old age of seventy-six, retaining his wonted energy to the last. Mrs. Cooke, who is a little over seventy, still lives in the old family mansion in the enjoyment of all her faculties, and an ample participant in the bounty of her sons.

MEN OF THE ROAD.

A Band of Thieves Practicing on a Railroad Train.

The Knoxville Free Press says that the train which arrived there Thursday night, on the East Tennessee and Virginia railroad, had among its many passengers a party starting for the New York as early as Sunday last. At Bristol they received an old gentleman of his watch, and, in fact, at every station some one of the passengers complained of being robbed. Conductor Lyle had the train thoroughly searched, and by so doing many valuables were saved. The gang were divided in several divisions, three being in the sleeping car and the balance in the coaches. The plan was to break the lamps and then rifle the sleeping passengers, but in this they were foiled. Lyle, the conductor, and a brave Dutchman, never removed their eyes from the gang. At Mossy creek, two went to the rear of the sleeping car, with the object of breaking in the door, but this was frustrated by the sleeping car conductor, Mr. Wash. Brosius, who drew a revolver and ran for them. One jumped off while the train was going at the rate of twenty miles an hour, and the other, Mr. Brosius succeeded in capturing, and marched him through the train with a revolver at his head. They did not succeed in stealing anything from the sleeping coach, as they were too closely watched. On their way to Knoxville they kept up their nefarious practice of robbing negroes and others on the train. Conductor Lyle sent a dispatch to the authorities there, but the thieves in some way discovered it, and as the train neared the city they jumped off, afterwards getting on the train for Chattanooga. These fellows will make the great city of New Orleans quake ere long, as the latter city is their destination.

ARKANSAS ITEMS.

A temperance society has been organized at Magnolia.

The Magnolia Gleaner strongly indorses the movement to organize the Democratic anti-negro suffrage party in that State.

The Searcy Record says: "The mail carrier for the Mount Pleasant Star Arc, arrived at Old Point on Tuesday."

The Van Buren Press learns that there is a good prospect of a newspaper being established at Clarksville, in Johnson county.

The Helena Clarion says that a negro man, name unknown, fell from a heavily loaded cotton wagon near that town on Tuesday, and was crushed to death by one wheel rolling over his body.

A call appears in the Ashley county Times for a meeting of the admirers of General Hancock's course in Louisiana, for the purpose of organizing a Hancock club.

The Searcy Record says: "Cotton is bringing from eight to eleven and twelve cents on our streets. Mr. J. F. Smith has purchased this week seventy-five bales."

The Little Rock mail of the 13th of November was found on the edge of that town. The letters had all been broken open. It was a very cool robbery.

The Madison (St. Francis county) Pioneer says: "The river is still too low for boats, and they are depending on teams for supplies; that cotton lies on the bank waiting transportation."

The Pine Bluff Dispatch says: "One more freedman passed to his long home, by the caving in of a well in this city, on Monday last. Cotton is selling here at eight to ten cents, and few buyers at these figures."

Owing to the low stage of water and the high price of transportation by way of Little Rock, the merchants of Forth Smith are having their goods from Little Piney, Missouri, at the end of the southwest branch of the Pacific railroad.

Mr. Shafer recently killed a gray eagle on Bald Knob, Mazzard prairie, which measured seven feet and one inch from tip to tip of wings, and its claws, open, full eight inches. Wolves are also seen in that neighborhood.

One undivided half of the Pine Bluff Dispatch is offered for sale. It is a paying office and is only offered for sale by reason of circumstances demanding attention to other matters. A bargain can be had if applied for soon.

The North Arkansas Times says that as an emigrant train was passing through that town Tuesday, it halted in front of Padgett's drug store, and a couple entered the store and announced their desire to be married. Mr. Lee was immediately sent for, and the knot was tied in good style.

The Pine Bluff Dispatch of the 14th has the following: The prisoners confined in the jail in this city, escaped one night this week, how or by what means we know not; we presume somebody knows. Robberies are becoming more frequent. On Saturday night last, the house of Mr. W. A. Lee was burglariously entered and many articles of value were stolen.

Says the Van Buren Press of the 13th instant: "There was a most remarkable escape of United States prisoners from the guard house, on Saturday last, at night. The two Indians, sentenced to be hung on the 7th of February next, and Sass, sentenced to the penitentiary for stealing horses, and a man by the name of Green, walked out at the side door of the guard house and made their escape."

The Monticello Guardian of the 14th instant, says: "A difficulty is reported between a Mr. Collins and one S. Johs, of Bradley county, resulting in an exchange of shots without injury—subsequently in an attempt to arrest Collins by the authorities he was shot and seriously wounded, while making resistence. He has since, we learn, made his escape. We have not heard the particulars, but suppose the difficulty originated in misunderstandings growing out of registration, St. John, we believe, being the same who had a difficulty with Captain Merriwether McGhee, whose arrest and incarceration he had succeeded in procuring for alleged interference with registration."

ALABAMA ITEMS.

Messrs. S. G. and J. S. Barr have become publishers of the Florence Literary Index.

Mr. B. F. Karsner, of Florence, died on Monday last, aged sixty seven years.

Albert Smith, a colored man, has been appointed Justice of the Peace in Talladega.

Judge A. B. Clitherall has returned with improved health from Sally Springs, to his home in Montgomery.

A negro in Choctaw county, Alabama, was killed some days ago by Daniel Wilson, late of the Registration Board.

The Tuscaloosa Times says we hear it whispered about that Hon. R. M. Patton will be run for Congress by the moderate men of the late Convention, from the Sixth Congressional District.

General Spencer says the Tuscaloosa Reconstructionist, the Register in Bankruptcy, left last night on the Mary Conley, with the remains of his wife, who died last summer in Tuscaloosa. He expects to return in about three weeks.

A little daughter of Mr. C. M. Crane, in Butler county, was smothered to death last Sunday, while playing in a pile of cotton seed. The little child had grabbled a hole in the seed, and while in, the seed fell in upon her, and before she could be gotten out, breath became extinct.

The Greenville Advocate says the negro who a few days ago shot a woman because she refused to marry him, was prevented yesterday by several of his own color, who swore vengeance for the wicked deed, done. He was caught and dragged almost to death, and was only severely wounded by a gun shot, which will probably prove fatal, that he was made prisoner.

Mr. Burrell Lanier, who has a California experience, estimates the yield of the gold found in Cleburne county, at 90 per cent. He and Captain J. M. Cunningham, of Lauderdale, have leased the land. The Huntsville Democrat says: "The gold is found in the northeastern part of Cleburne, in a quartz vein running from northeast to southwest, and is believed to be very rich and extensive. At a point twenty miles southwest, parties with very imperfect machinery, have obtained a very large per cent. of gold from the quartz.

MISSISSIPPI ITEMS.

The death of James M. Shackleford, of Madison county, is announced. He was for a long period clerk of that county, and was a worthy and estimable gentleman.

We learn from the Jackson Clarion that Colonel Richard T. Maury, late Private Secretary to Governor Humphreys, will, at an early day, mount the tripod of the Tyler Gibson Standard.

At Forest Station, Tuesday, J. R. Langdon, a railroad employee, was killed by a man named Price, in a quarrel growing out of some trivial matter while both parties were excited with liquor. Price has evaded capture.

Three buildings in Vicksburg, erected on the site of those destroyed last year, were burned Thursday morning. The Times complains of the soldiers sent to assist the fire department, that many of them were drunk and had their interference instead of assisting. Mr. Bigelow, a respectable citizen, while discharging his duties, received a bayonet thrust from one of them, and is supposed to be painfully injured. The Commander of the post will not permit soldiers to attend these hereafter.

The Charleston Bulletin of the 21st says: The hotel of Sam. Barbee, of Oakland, was the scene of a shooting affray one night last week. Dr. Jones, of the well known firm of Miller Jones & Co., of Memphis, who was stopping at the hotel for a few days, was one night very unceremoniously relieved of his personal effects, consisting of wearing apparel, valuable papers, etc., by a scoundrel who had been lounging about the premises for some days. Look out for sharpers these times.

THURSDAY'S DOOM DISPATCHES

Probable Defeat of the Annexation Project in St. Thomas.

The Miscegenation Convention and Trade in Georgia.

Amounts Due the Government From Southern Railroads.

NEW YORK, December 26.—The Havana correspondent of the Herald says the proposed postal treaty between the United States and Spain, has not only been favorably received at Madrid, but that it was liable to be concluded ere long.

A Herald's Washington special says the anticipated difficulty in securing the appropriation of funds, by the House of Representatives, necessary to consummate the purchase of St. Thomas, appears to be not the only obstacle in the way of the United States perfecting the acquisition of that island. From a gentleman from St. Thomas we learn that the fine approaches for the public to determine by their suffrage whether the island shall remain under the jurisdiction of Denmark or be transferred to the United States. The indication to allow matters to remain as they are grows stronger. This feeling is not the result of hostile sentiments toward our Constitution, but a desire to avoid the high rates of our past outlay.

The Times' Atlanta (Georgia) correspondent says one of the largest and wealthiest merchants in that city told him, a few mornings ago, that, since the passage by the Convention of the temporary ordinance prohibiting the levy of executions and sale of property, he has not been able to collect a hundred dollars, and that business, except a little retail trade, is practically dead throughout the State.

A Washington special to the Times states that the Civilian Government has ordered representatives of the republic to England on an important diplomatic mission.

General Grant reports that the balance due from Southern railroad companies to the United States, November 1, 1867, including interest, was $4,884,500.

WASHINGTON, December 26.—The rumors relative to a reduction of the regular army is entirely unfounded. General Grant has not recommended any such measure; on the contrary, it is stated in his communication to the Committee on Military Affairs that he did not think a reduction of the force at the present time advisable.

NEW YORK, December 26, 12 m.—Gold opened at 134; at ten a.m. was 134¾; at 11 was 134¾, and is now 134¾. Cotton dull and nominal. Exchange steady.

CHATTANOOGA.

The Radical Municipal Troubles.

The Metropolitan Sustained as a Party Measure, and so Admitted.

From the Chattanooga Union of the 21st.

CHATTANOOGA, December 21, 1867.

To the Voters of Chattanooga: I had wished that it might not be necessary to come before the public, by communication or otherwise, but there are a few facts that I feel it my duty to lay before this community. The leaders in the Radical party well know when, how and for what reasons, our city charter as it stood in 1866 was changed. It was changed that D. C. Carr could be made Mayor, and he and his partner wrote the charter themselves, and the understanding then was that the suit in which the old board had instituted against the Metropolitan Police should be dismissed. Imagine my surprise when, after our city election, and Mr. Carr was elected Mayor, not only him, but the Board of Aldermen, not only favored the prosecution of the suit against the Metropolitan Police, but employed other and more able counsel to conduct the case. Ever since that time Mr. Carr has done everything in his power to injure me and the Metropolitan Police, and for the sole object of getting rid of the Police Commissioner, that he might get the salary which I am now getting. I am well aware that the Metropolitan Police is more expensive than the city can afford, and no one is more willing that it should be disbanded than myself, and I will resign my position as Commissioner and disband the police immediately upon the election of any one elected to the office of Mayor, but I never will if D. C. Carr is elected. If the citizens of Chattanooga are anxious that the police be abolished, let them come up and elect any good Radical who is a gentleman, to the position of Mayor, and I will immediately disband the police, or as soon as a settlement can be arranged with the city, but I will not, so long as Mr. Carrie the Mayor of the city.

I am willing and anxious to have the police disbanded, and let the city have a police of their own making, and will promise or bind myself to the fund the police, if any one besides D. C. Carr is elected Mayor.

Respectfully,

E. A. PEARSON,
Commissioner Metropolitan Police.

Address to the Conservative People of Alabama.

To the Conservatives of Alabama:

The people of the State opposed to the ratification of the so called constitution to be submitted to the people on fourth of February next, have by general consent imposed upon the Executive Committee the responsibility of recommending the policy best calculated to accomplish its defeat.

The Committee properly appreciate the great trust, and will take no action until they have obtained the co-operation and advice of our truest and best friends, North and South, with whom they are in correspondence. We cannot afford to act hastily in a matter involving our existence as a free people. Our cause is that of constitution and liberty. A mistake may prove fatal to all that we hold sacred in this life.

The Committee earnestly recommend the formation of Conservative Clubs in every county in the State, where not already organized, on the first Monday in January. A most thorough organization is essential to success. The Secretaries of Central Clubs at the several county sites are requested to forward to the chairman of the Executive Committee at Montgomery the names of the President and Secretary, as it will be necessary to communicate with them as soon as our policy is determined. In the meantime it is to be hoped that no good man will be idle—there is work for all.

Nothing at this time is better calculated to produce division and discord in our ranks than the announcement of candidates for office. Let it be remembered that the highest ambition of our people is satisfactory to patriotism. Should it become advisable to change our policy timely notice will be given.

There will be a session of the District Court of the United States in this city, on the second Tuesday in January. Many prominent men from different portions of the State will be in attendance, and the Executive Committee will avail themselves of the opportunity then presented to consult them as to the best policy to be adopted by us. In the mean while the views of all friends of constitutional liberty (by letter or otherwise) are respectfully solicited.

It is the intention of the Committee to publish and circulate throughout the State suitable campaign documents, and solicit voluntary contributions from the friends of the cause to defray the necessary expenses.

Very respectfully,

JAMES H. CLANTON,
Chairman State Ex. Com.

HORRIBLE MURDER.

A Whole Family Slaughtered in Alabama.

From the Mobile Tribune of the 24th.]

Wednesday night a horrible murder was committed near Perdido station in Baldwin county, a negro man named Cesar Morris, his wife, mother and child, being the victims. A little girl managed to escape and gave the alarm, but not in time to secure the arrest of the murderer.

The above facts were telegraphed to Colonel Jordan, Superintendent of the M. & G. N. R. R., who communicated them to General Shepherd, and a guard of four soldiers was yesterday sent over on the Sunnier. It is to be hoped that the perpetrators of this horrible murder may be arrested. We learned from Colonel Jordan that the murdered man was a bright mulatto, about twenty-five years of age, and bore a good character. We have been unable to learn any further particulars.

General Pope refuses to recognize any of the provisions of the Alabama Convention until it shall be ratified by the people.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1867

THE debate in the Senate on the bill of the House repealing the tax on cotton was the occasion of a speech from Mr. MORRILL, of Vermont, the author of the internal revenue system, against it. The speech is replete with statistics bearing on the question of cotton, which, though presented with a view of defending the cotton tax imposition, are nevertheless of much interest to the cotton planters of the South. Mr. MORRILL takes the ground that the cotton tax should be maintained, as a means of revenue, and defends that policy because of the conviction that the cotton growing interests of the South will in the future be able to sustain, without sensible effect, the burden which it imposes, and that no such stimulating inducement as its repeal is necessary to invite the continued production of cotton. Mr. MORRILL holds that American cotton occupies the advantage position in the markets of the world; that it will continue to do so; and that, in other words, it is "king" over all other kinds, and will compel its use over the Surat and all other competing cottons. Its superiority over all others, and the capacity of his country to produce it cheaper, he thinks will soon cause it to regain the position it has lost. In India, according to his figures, the average production is seventy pounds to the acre, while its proportionate value to American cotton is as sixpence to ten pence for middlings, and about fivepence to eight pence on the ordinary (the American cotton commanding the higher price), a proportionate difference which is maintained in all the fluctuations of the market. The proportionate value of sevens of India cotton is as seven dollars to forty dollars of the value of American cotton, upon the basis of fivepence or ten cents a pound. The price of labor has within the last ten years doubled in India, and the taxes have so increased, for the purpose of introducing railroads into the country, in order to reach cotton in the interior districts and bring it to market, that its cotton interests as well as all kinds of business are crippled and depressed. The quality of India cotton does not at all approximate to ours in length of staple, fineness or luster; what is exhibited as fine specimens being carefully raised as hot bed plants for the mere purpose of exhibition. Agents who have been sent out to report on the production of India cotton for the coming year to the Times of India, a newspaper of date October 26th, report a slight diminution in the number of acres in cultivation, and that these will only be three-fourths of the crop of last year for the reason that the fields have been deluged by rains; the ground is soft and choked up with weeds and the ryots are turning their attention for the subject of raising linseed, hemp and other things that afford larger profit. In Bra. all the moment the crop goes below twelve pence a pound, or twenty-four cents, sugar and coffee become more profitable than cotton. It has already gone below that point, and Mr. Mossatt thinks Brazil will be likely to engage in the growth of sugar and coffee. In Egypt it is impossible for them to increase their cotton crop without peril to breadstuffs, and they have already diminished it, for the reason that they have been in danger of starvation in consequence of devoting too large a share of their land to the culture of cotton. It is the same in Tuffa. Therefore have but thousands and hundreds of thousands of people mainly because they pushed their cotton crop at the expense of their grain crop. Already the entire exportations of cotton from China and Japan have ceased, so that we need have no apprehensions in relation to the increase of this crop, if we do not overload the market, as we have done this last year ourselves. We have since to fear from ourselves, not from foreigners. India has consumed little cotton while it bore a price of thirty or forty cents per pound; but having for years now used it sparingly they will require a much larger amount hereafter for their own consumption. These facts, with reference to the calamity which a country entails upon itself by the exclusive devotion of its soil to the culture of cotton, should be a warning to the Southern people. A judicious policy, founded upon their own experience and that of other cotton countries demands that the primary object of their agriculture shall be devoted to the culture of the cereals and the raising of meat, so as to remove them from a dependence which compels them to ship what cotton they raise when the market is low, and thus to stock it at an inauspicious time. In this connection, a history of the growth of cotton since 1823 furnished to us, shows the fact that when the South has raised a large cotton crop she has obtained a less price per pound and a less amount in aggregate than for her smaller crops. In 1823 we exported 378,723,320 pounds, and we got for it $20,445,528. In 1824 we exported only 142,369,093 pounds, and we got $21,947,401 for it. In 1830 we exported 204,585,415 pounds, and we got for it $25,698,214. In 1837 we exported 294,310,115 pounds, or about ninety million pounds in excess of the previous crop, and we got for it $127,454,925. The next $4,000,000 in excess. In 1826 we exported 423,631,307 pounds, and we got for it $71,284,925. The next year, 1837, we exported 444,211,537 pounds, and we only got $63,240,102 for it. In 1838 we exported 593,955,297 pounds, and we got for it $61,456,811. In 1839 we exported 413,624,212 pounds, one third less than the preceding year, and yet we got for it about the same amount of money, $61,218,923. In 1840 we exported 743,945,001 pounds, or 330,000,000 in excess of the crop of the previous year, and we got for it $63,870,307, or $2,500,000 more. In 1841 we exported 830,294,100 pounds and got $54,330,341. In 1842 we exported 684,717,017 pounds, or more than a million pounds in excess of the previous year, and got for it $47,502,464, being nearly seven million dollars less. In 1843 we exported 792,297,100 pounds, and got $49,119,816. In 1844 we exported 663,083,453, or nearly one hundred and thirty million pounds less than the previous year, and yet we got for that crop only $54,-063,503, or very nearly five million dollars more. In 1848 we exported 814,274,431 pounds, and got $61,988,294 for it. In 1849 we exported 1,026,602,209 pounds, and got $66,396,967. There for an excess of nearly two million pounds over the previous year we only got $5,000,000 more. In 1856 we exported 1,361,431,701 pounds, and got $128,382,357. In 1857 we exported 1,048,282,475 pounds, or 300,000,000 pounds less than the year before, and yet we got for it $131,575,859, or $3,000,-000 more. By this it will be seen that we get more for a smaller crop, and save in addition the labor of producing and the cost of baling and rope. In what we have said, and the statistics we have furnished from Mr. MORRILL, we are actuated by a desire to acquaint our agricultural readers with the facts upon which they can make up an intelligent judgment as to what should be their future policy. We say to them, plant, first, cereals—the elements of bread and meat, making cotton the subordinate and not the primary purpose of their next year's work, and what cotton they do raise will bring as much as a larger crop, and can be controlled by themselves. When they have their own bread and meat, and the means which the excess of their earlier crops brings them, they will then be independent of any obligation to ship forward at any sacrifice.

NEW ORLEANS, December 26.

The Convention drew to-day to the consideration of the reports of the committee to draft a Constitution. Both the majority and minority reports were taken up as the first order of the day, the majority report, which was the second article of the minority report, was adopted as the first article of the Constitution, by a vote of fifty-seven to seventy:

"All men are created free and equal, and have certain inalienable rights, and among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and to secure these rights governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

Crawford, Conray and Leading opposed its adoption, as it would bring ridicule upon the Convention, and were prejudicial to the State, inasmuch if it was enforced in the Constitution no criminal could be punished by death or imprisonment.

The following was offered but crowded out by the previous question: "The citizens of this State owe allegiance and unconditional submission to the allegiance into the State."

The Convention then adjourned until eleven o'clock to-morrow.

BRAID STOLEN.—The hair store of Madame Guilmard, No. 43½ Jefferson street, was robbed on Tuesday of a fine braid valued at $25.

LARCENY.—Andrew Royster was yesterday committed by Squire Moore in default of $1,000 for grand larceny.

FOUND—In the carpet room of Royster, Trezvant & Co., a lady's fur collar, which the owner can have by proving property and paying for this advertisement.

BURGLARY.—The residence of Mr. Crosby, No. 75 Poplar street, was entered on Tuesday night and clothing etc., to the amount of $50 carried off.

FINE COUNTER.—This morning, at ten o'clock, a fine counter will be sold at the office of the Union Express company, North court street.

BASE BALL.—The Pride of the South club, on Christmas day, beat the Enterprise by a score of fifty to nineteen.

COMMITTED.—Henry Reeves, who was arrested on Christmas day, charged with stealing a quantity of clothing from a house on Main street, near Overton, was yesterday committed to jail by Squire Moore, in default of the requisite bail.

ALDERMAN TENTH WARD—MESSRS. EDITORS: If Wm. Montgomery will consent to become a candidate for Alderman of the Tenth Ward he will be supported by a MAJORITY OF THE VOTERS.

THE TURNER'S BALL.—This affair, on Christmas night, was a splendid success, and not a single event occurred to mar the harmony of the occasion. No class of our people better know how to enjoy the social pleasures of the christmas season.

SHOOTING.—R. H. Page, W. N. McLemore and Louis Heudel, were yesterday afternoon arrested for shooting within the corporation. The boys had no doubt forgotten that Christmas was over, but the police remembered the fact and took them to the central station.

WANTED TO CUT HER.—Mary Bird, a female of color, became enraged, you are so, against Lou Anderson, who lives on Union street, and made an attempt to cut her. In this she was not successful, but had, nevertheless, to go up the lock-up.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Mr. Seigel, who lives at No 80 Beale street, was assaulted on Tuesday night by three negroes, knocked down and robbed of a silver watch, gold chain, and a small sum in cash. This occurred about eleven o'clock.

ANOTHER MAGISTRATE.—Mr. John H. Priddy, of Bartlett, Tennessee, who was elected magistrate for that corporation about a year since, was commissioned on the 6th instant by the Governor, and, having been qualified, has entered upon the duties of his office.

A CHASE.—A lively mackerel appropriated to himself some article from a Front street establishment, and immediately took leg bail. Chase was given, and when his pursuers were getting too close to him for comfortable, he cracksteer turned around and shot at the foremost. This had the effect to dampen the ardor of the pursuit, and he made good his escape.

INTERESTING CEREMONY.—The officers elect of Hamilton, South Memphis, Lelia Scott and Kensington Lodges (Masonic) will be publicly installed at the First Baptist Church lecture-room evening, at seven and a half o'clock. The ceremonies will be conducted by General Alex. Pope. The public are invited to be present on this interesting occasion.

THE HOP.—The Gayoso House hop last night was brilliant in its exuberance of beauty, and the Sosro fire by which some of the ladies were attired. It was the last fashionable events of the season, and are attended by the elite of the city. That of last night was, if anything, more successful and pleasant than its predecessors, and we venture the assertion that satisfaction and pleasure was the universal feeling of all present. The Messrs. Cockrill were assisting in their efforts to add pleasure to the occasion, and in this they were eminently successful.

THE JEWISH FESTIVAL.—This event, at the Memphis Club hall, is now in the full tide of success, as it deserves to be, from the noble object for which it is given. We know of no fair that has taken place in Memphis which has, so far, eclipsed it, in any of the essentials which go to make up a fair. The hall is beautifully and tastefully decorated, the ladies fair, vivacious and hard workers, without being too pertinacious in their demands upon the purse; the articles on exhibition and to be disposed of by raffle or ballot, are of the best description; in fact everything is as it should be. This evening being the Jewish sabbath, the fair will be closed, but will be resumed again on Saturday.

THE ORPHANS' FAIR.—This festival opened last night, and the crowd in attendance was large, and a commodious room of cozy-looking comfortable character. It is handsomely fitted up in good taste, and the tables make a fine display of inviting articles to be disposed of for the benefit of the orphans. The various articles put up for competition elicited a good deal of interest, and the voting on them promises to be close and well contested. It was originally intended to hold this fair in Exchange building, but the place was changed to the fine hall near the corner of Second and Jefferson. The charitable will bear in mind that this fair is one of the main supports of the orphans, and no doubt it will be patronized accordingly.

ANOTHER ROBBERY.—A man named Conway, who lives some distance in the county, was found on Tuesday night, lying senseless and partly naked, in a vacant lot on Second street, below Main. All the Christmas Conway was in a state of stupefaction, and could give no intelligible account of himself, but toward night he became more con-ble, and stated that the last thing he remembered was being in a drinking saloon on Adams corner. Further than this he could not recollect, but he was dragged, thus robbed, and left by the thieves in the semi-nude condition in which he was found.

ATTEMPT AT ARSON.—On Christmas morning some unprincipled wretch hurled a stone through the show window of Sproule & McOown, on Main near Adams. The rock went through both the outside and inside windows, and was picked up on the floor. After the window was broken a box of stove bottoms, within reach from the outside, was ransacked, and a quantity of brought down into the aperture of the window, which partially burned some fine shirts there on exhibition. It is a wonder that a fire did not occur, as that was the evident intention in exposing the bottoms to the window.

A FIGHT.—On the corner of Second and Jefferson street, yesterday afternoon, about two o'clock, a fight occurred in which a negro named John Henderson was terribly beaten by a couple of draymen named Tim Roach and Wm. Bell. For some time it was a fair stand up affair, between the negro and one of the white men. The negro was much heavier and stouter than the white man, and the odds interfered between them both they got the negro down and gave him what he richly deserved, a little physical discipline. The cause of the fight was the white man wished to have the dray to get a load, the negro would not give place, and used an opprobious epithet towards his assailant which no man would have peaceably accepted. We are of opinion that Henderson will be a little civil hereafter.

RECOVERED.—It will be recollected that a couple of trunks were broken open, at the fire at Burn's grocery, on the Pigeon Roost road, last week, and their contents appropriated. Yesterday Constable Robinson succeeded in recovering much of the stolen property, amounting in all to about $200. The property was found in the house of a negro named Judge Mahon, (wonder if that's contempt?) who, with his wife Mandy, and another interesting female named Jane Oaton, were arrested for the theft. The cable trio lived on Berrington near Poindexter street, and their palatial cabin, it appears, was a regular "opium house." Among the plunder recovered was a lot of silver ware, marked "W. L. T.," which now awaits a claimant.

WOOD AND WILLOW WARE.—Our readers in want of anything in this line will not forget the store of Wheeler, Pickens & Co., 320 Main street, who has on hand the most complete stock of this kind of ware in the market, and which they are selling at the lowest prices. Table oil cloth has also on hand, for the holidays, a splendid stock of toys, of all kinds for the little ones, besides other articles too limited for gifts. They also offer to the farmers of the surrounding country to purchase or manufacture on shares all the broom corn which will be raised for this market during the coming year. We would advise all to call upon them, for their scale of prices is astonishing low, and the quality of their goods excellent.

PERSONAL.—Moss, Kloh, of Lyons, France, and interested in the direct trade movement of Moss, Fibers, of Secondarre, arrived in the city yesterday, and may be found at the Overton.

Major Joseph Bartlett, so well known in Memphis, is at present sojourning in Philadelphia.

R. F. Gibbs, who was killed at the recent railroad disaster, near Angora, New York, is supposed to have been a brother of Mr. Frank Gibbs of this city. Mr. Gibbs was from Galveston, Texas, and for years was a citizen of Memphis, and his numerous friends here (if it should turn out to be him) will sincerely mourn his loss.

Mr. Seth. R. Carey, the genial ticket agent of the Mississippi Central railroad is at present at the Overton. His numerous friends will be glad to extend to him the compliments of the season.

Mr. A. H. Manly has withdrawn his name as a Conservative candidate in the Eighth ward.

Among the arrivals at the Gayoso, we notice that of the Hon. E. H. East, of Davidson, a distinguished member of this Tennessee Legislature.

Major Jos. Vasile, jr., of Nashville, is at the Gayoso.

Messrs. William Sherrod, O. H. Ryman, and Wilmoggy Williams are also at the Gayoso.

Mr. E. S. Sidwell, a prominent merchant of New York, arrived yesterday in the city, and may be found at the Overton.

Mr. Jas. K. Beard, connected with one of the departments at Washington, now on a tour of inspection through the Southern States, arrived yesterday, and may be found in the Worsham House.

CHRISTMAS.

The Manner of its Celebration on the Streets.

Two Men Killed, and Another not Expected to Live.

Accidents—Fights—Incidents.

Christmas, 1867, will be universally remembered by the occurrence of several of those bloody personal rencontres which have done so much to disgrace our city. From dark on Tuesday night until daylight on Wednesday morning, the air was deafened by the continual fusillade of pistol and gun. On every street corner torpedoes were exploded, and at night time the sky was lurid with the bursting of rocks and Roman candles. Crowds of men, white and black, thronged the streets, and many, we were sorry to see, could not have walked a chalk line. The churches, too, were well attended, and the conductors of the various services of the day had no reason to complain of the want of audition. But with the labors we have nothing to do, at present, and propose in the following to confine ourselves to the

RECITAL OF THE EVENTS OF CHRISTMAS NIGHT.

SHOOTING ON MAIN STREET.

Between twelve and one o'clock Main street, in the neighborhood of Overton, was thronged of inmates and tenants, caused by the fatal shooting of John Fenton, a Metropolitan police man, and a small boy named Joseph Schmits, by James Galvin. The particulars of the affair, as near as we can obtain the points, is as follows: John Fenton, an officer of the police, saw a difficulty in progress between a Mr. Connell and a negro; Connell struck the negro, and Fenton interfered to quell the disturbance, which he did, and made the negro leave the scene; he then so ured McMahon's saloon, in the same neighborhood, to restore order there. Both Mr. and Messrs. Galvin, Tom Connell and John McGinn engaged in a quarrel. Mahon ordered them to leave the saloon, and they all started for the door. About the time they had reached it, harsh language having passed on both sides, they commenced an indiscriminate assault upon Fenton, who was knocked into the gutter, and very roughly handled. His club was wrenched from him, and he was otherwise being maltreated, when he endeavored to draw his revolver. About this time it is said that Galvin drew his pistol, and commenced firing at the police man. His first shot missed Fenton, but took effect in the left temple of a German boy named Schmits, who was in line of the fire. This shot passed the face of Fenton, cutting his ear. The policeman by this time had succeeded in drawing his pistol, and fired at Galvin, but half taking effect in the left arm. The second shot of Galvin passed harmlessly by, but his third one took effect in Fenton's third rib on the left side, shearing the bone and penetrating to the lung, from the effects of which his physicians do not think he can recover. The wound of the boy Schmits' proves fatal. Galvin's arm is not much hurt the wound being merely a flesh one. Both the men were intoxicated, and, more's the pity, both alike is manifested by their respective friends. Galvin and McGinn were arrested and lodged in the calaboose, and Connell appeared in court yesterday. They were taken before Squire Hall on Thursday, who remanded them to jail until 9 o'clock this morning, when their examination will take place. Fenton was a native of the County of Kerry, Ireland, and was about twenty-seven years of age, eighteen of which he had spent in this country.

ANOTHER FATAL CASE.

The melancholy end but of a most fearful Saturday Night and Christmas revelry, was that of a man unknown person, while he was standing on Third aley, between Madison and Court streets. The ball entered the right eye, and death was almost instantaneous. It has not been ascertained whether the shot was fired by accident or not, but as a gun or pistol fell in the presumption of malice. It is said that some time ago Buncom was an important witness in a bloody case in which a negro woman was concerned, and it is said that since the latter has been killed. Parties who say they know assert that a negro hurriedly ran out of the alley immediately after the fatal discharge. Buncom was employed by Colonel Miles Owen as a house servant. Another version of the affair is that Buncom and another boy, named Dabney, were playing, and that the latter, not knowing the pistol was loaded, discharged it, with the above fatal result. We are inclined to believe the first version, from the fact that Cesar had not been arrested, as he certainly would have been had he done the shooting, even accidentally.

STILL ANOTHER.

A man named Tom Hughes, who lives on the edge of the city, on another man whose name he refuses to disclose, near the mouth of Wolf river. The wound is not dangerous, and he says he was as much to blame as the man who shot him.

AND STILL ANOTHER.

John Patterson, a negro, was shot almost three o'clock this afternoon, in the thigh, by a man named Thomas Monroe, who was under the influence of liquor. The shooting took place on Turley street, near Beale. An attempt was made by the negro to stab Monroe with a knife, but he was prevented by some white men who happened to be near, assisted by several negroes. He was conveyed to the County street station.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.

On Tuesday evening Joseph Peay, a negro, was accidentally shot in the left arm, while standing on the corner of Gayoso and Dennie streets. The ball took effect in the elbow, breaking the bone there, and was also entirely responsible for a large drunken celebrant.

A night named McDuffy was wounded in the hand early in the morning by the accidental discharge of a pistol which he was flourishing.

A young man named Harman was accidentally shot by Jake Rogers, at the corner of Overton and Main. The ball took effect in the fleshy part of the leg, and was caused by the careless handling of a pistol.

A negro boy named Dan. Jones had the forefinger of his left hand shot off on Beale street, through the accidental discharge of a pistol which he was handling.

Robert H. Mitchell, a son of George Mitchell, of the firm of Mitchell, Hoffman & Co., was accidentally shot in the hand by a pistol which he was handling, and which took effect in the ball went entirely through the hand.

FIGHTS.

A crowd of drunken negroes congregated on the corner of Gayoso and Dennie streets, and a fight commenced between two of them, which the crowd undertook to prevent being consummated with. Officer McFarland stopped the fight and endeavored to disperse the crowd, who moved off to the bank of the river, between Linden and Beale, where they attempted to continue the fight. The policeman followed them up, and endeavored to disperse the crowd. Several of the more violent, and among them Gibbs attacked him with a club. He warded off the blows with his left arm, and was in danger of losing his life at the hands of the excited crowd, when the Captain of the steamer Victor, and several of the idle spectators, came to the rescue. Sam Gibbs and two others of the crowd, William Britton and Sam Riley, were arrested and taken to the station house.

Tom Hughes was also badly beaten about the face by a German butcher, named John and Henry. They were arrested, and Squire Minor will dispose of them to-day.

Were we to attempt to enumerate the number of minor fights which took place, it would almost exclude all the rest of our local. We heard of them in every direction, and only record such as were of importance for our readers.

ACCIDENTS, ETC.

Frank Halle, a boy about twelve years of age, son of A. J. Halle, Esq., the banker, had his face severely burned by an accidental explosion of powder. He and another boy were firing pistols, and a quantity of powder they had with them ignited, or, stooping in Frank's hand. The injuries to the child are painful, but it is to be hoped will prove of no permanent injury.

A son of Mr. Worsham, the former proprietor of the Worsham House, was severely burned in the face by the accidental explosion of a large firecracker. His hands and face were much injured.

A negro boy named Denton was struck in the face by a Roman candle, on the corner of second and Gayoso streets. He was not much hurt, although he lost a good deal of claret.

We heard of several accidents of minor importance, but as they were of no special interest, and as we are crowded for room, we omit them.

SCHOOL MATTERS.—School Directors have been elected in the following districts of Shelby county, under the provisions of the common school law:

Seventh Civil District—R. S. Taylor, John Godwin; G. M. Bartlett, Clerk.

Fifteenth Civil District—E. B. Thomas, C. H. Townsend; J. W. Morehead, Clerk.

Seventeenth District—Abner Rowe, Sterling Smith; Jerome Mitchell, Clerk.

The scholastic census has been taken in the Second and Seventh civil districts, by which we learn that there are in the Second district 191 whites, and 406 negro scholars; in the Seventh district there are 256 whites and 300 negroes. Total number of scholars in both districts, whites, 447; negroes, 811.

THE NEW MEMPHIS.—"Hamlet" was produced last night and with about the same general points as on its previous representation, with the exception that perhaps Mr. Mayo did not play it with the spirit of his first night, and that Fenton, as "Laertes," was more horrible than before. His face will never do for the heroic—it is not ductile enough, and the eccentric rolling of the eyes will never make up for facial deficiency. Take a friend's advice, and quit it. To-night will be presented the "Dead Heart," a piece in which Mr. Mayo is said to excel.

WHO ARE TO BE THE FORTUNATE?—At the Cashier's desk, now in progress, are two prizes in which each inmate will be manifested. At the table of the accomplished Miss Bates a splendid cabinet is to be voted to the most popular cotton clerk. At another table is a magnificent gold watch and chain, to be given to the most popular railroad conductor. Both of these prizes will, no doubt, be the most popular.

SEVENTH WARD.—A meeting was held in this ward last night, from which we have received two different reports, and two separate nominations for Aldermen. One report informs us that Mr. McCormack received the nomination, and the other that Thomas O. Smith was the fortunate individual. We are unfortunate in not being able which of the gentlemen was nominee.

LADIES' FAIR AT THE MEMPHIS CLUB.—There will be raffled for, to-morrow night, at nine o'clock, a pearl opera glass, for the favorite gentleman; at half-after nine o'clock, a diamond ring, for the favorite young lady; at ten o'clock, gold headed cane, for the favorite gentleman; at half-past ten o'clock, a magnificent clock, for the favorite freight agent.

RAMSDELL & SON, No. 10 Jefferson street, and 359 Main street, have the New York Ledger, Chimney Corner, Boston Pilot, monthly Times, and Irish Republic, Harper's Bazar, Willow Spirit, Last Invention, Harper's Weekly, Frank Leslie, Every Saturday, Ledger, Ars Journal, Dr. Chase's Eclectic Magazine, Galaxy and Harper's Magazine for January and other periodicals.

The Conservatives of the seventh ward held a meeting last night at the Fireman house, but failed to agree on any candidate. After their adjournment the old members of Fire Company No. 1 met and resolved to support Mr. Alex Dingeldein for Alderman.

A SINGULAR ENCOUNTER IN ARKANSAS.

Two White Men Followed and Attacked by a Chimpanzee.

We have that on Saturday last, on the line of the Little Rock railroad, twenty-five miles from Memphis, a Mr. Neely, living on Black Fork, accompanied by a friend, a Mr. Montgomery, was followed by a creature for three miles, who finally sprang on Mr. Neely, tore, fiercely, mangled him, before he had his pistol could succeed in overcoming and killing the savage beast. A better attack by one of these fiercest animals was never heard of. We are glad to learn that Mr. Neely is recovering.

Correspondence.

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, December 26, 1867.

CAPTAIN A. T. LEE: DEAR SIR, pleased to inform you that at a meeting of Committee of Citizens delegates from the various wards of this city, regularly assembled in convention at Exchange Building, on the 24th instant, you received a majority of votes as their choice for the office of Mayor at the next municipal election, which will occur on the first Monday in March next.

Having entire confidence in your mental worth and capacity, and feeling that you possess the ability to relieve our city from its present financial embarrassment, we hope you will accept the nomination hereby tendered you. Hoping that the 24th inst. may be propitious for you,

I remain, sir, very respectfully,

J. H. HARDLY, Chairman of the Convention.

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, December 26, 1867.

J. H. HARDLY, Esq., Chairman, etc.:

SIR—Yours of this date ratifying me of my nomination by the Citizens' Reform party of Memphis as their candidate for Mayor at the approaching election, is before me, and by its contents, without solicitation by me, at this crisis as the standard bearer of the party in its my estimation, such a compliment that I do not feel that I have the right to it either; however it may interfere with my private interest or preference.

In accepting this nomination, I am not unmindful of the high responsibilities it involves, for this contest is to decide whether the interests of our fair and once prosperous city are to be confided to the intelligent helpers of our community, who are permanently interested in its welfare, or to the ignorant and the new comers who have no abiding place here or elsewhere.

If elected, the first and resulting object of my administration shall be to pay into the city credit at least as A, par with that of other cities, with like resources and liabilities.

In expressing my thanks for this manifestation of the confidence of my fellow citizens, I can but regret that close attention to my private business will prevent me from participating in the canvass with the zeal of those "associated" with me in the ticket, as I would desire. This, however, I hope to correct, even in the short time to elapse between now and the election, by meeting them at their ward meetings and fully stating myself and position known to them.

Thanking you and the convention you represent for the confidence you have reposed in me, I am, with sentiments of high esteem,

Very respectfully,

Your most obedient servant,

ALFRED T. LACEY.

RIOT SCENES.

A Circuit Judge Before the Police Court.

"Was it For Stealing a Watch or Robbing a Train?"

From the Nashville Dispatch]

On Saturday, during the excitement of the negro meeting at the Court House, when the fight occurred between Judge Brien until Mr. Cary, the former, it will be remembered, was arrested, by the police and held to appear for trial. The case was called in the Police Court on yesterday morning, the being a large number of spectators present. The Judge was arraigned for assault and battery. He appeared in person and made his statement. He stated that he was at the Court House on Saturday and that he felt himself disgraced by going into the Convention or having anything to do with the concern. He said that his principal object in going in was to use his influence in quelling the disturbances which he learned were going on there. While there he stated that Cary, whom he willful and malicious falsehoods, and that he (Brien) had denounced him as a liar and a scoundrel. This he said Cary took without resentment. Afterwards, the Judge said, that he was making some remarks in regard to the franchise bill, when Cary said, "That's hot so;" he (Brien) then aimed to strike him as nigh in the mouth as he could. The police then interfered and in making the arrest handled him very roughly and ungentlemanly; that he denounced it so at the time. He said that peaceable who were for him were forced to keep silent and overawed by the police, whom he charged with being in the interest of Cary. He stated that he wanted nothing kept back; he was not one of those men who was ashamed of his acts, or wanted his name kept out of the papers. He felt that he had done nothing but what was right. Policeman Rogers, who was engaged in making the arrest, was examined. He testified that a negro in the Brien interest had said to Brien, when the arrest was being made, "don't you go with the d——d s—n of a b——h." Here Brien asked, "Did you hear that?" Answer—"I heard it."

"Who else heard it?" Answer—"Do not know."

"Were you not arrested here once for stealing a watch?" Answer—"No, sir."

"Was it on a charge of robbing a train?" This seemed to be the tenor of the charge, which was not substantiated. Officer Miller testimony corroborated the evidence of the preceding witness. Colonel Stone reviewed the case, and stated that, in view of the extraordinary excitement of the occasion, and the appearance of a general outbreak at the time of the arrest, he would dismiss the accused without a fine, though the arrest by the officer he deemed justifiable.
